Further information about The Role of Service Dogs for People with Autism:

The Centre for Service and Therapy Dogs Australia (CSTDA) provides a service dog and a program that specifically suits each client's special needs, aimed at including the client and their dog in the community.

In this seminar, Yariv Ben Yosef, our Director of International programs, will outline our various programs. We will also discuss the many roles that dogs play in the process. The evening will include demonstrations of some techniques used in our programs and you will be able to see our service dogs with their owners.

About Yariv Ben Yosef:

Yariv is the director of The Centre for Service and Therapy Dogs Australia (CSTDA) and a certified dog trainer with more than 17 years of experience in training dogs and designing programs to support people with Autism, Epilepsy, Intellectual Disability and more.
