Billeting

- Depending on numbers, a 1:1 billet/host ratio is usually applied
- You may arrange your own billet with a host family – please advise on the registration form
- Other billeting requests will be considered, but will not be guaranteed (multiples, medical etc)
- Include your request for ‘friends with friends’ when you register, but there are no guarantees
- Billeting allocations based on:
 - Gender / Age / Shomer Shabbat / Kashrut / Sports
- All participants are expected to stay with Carnival host families in Sydney, not with families/households outside of Carnival (family/relatives included).
- Every adult in the host household will be required to submit a valid working with children check
- The billeting manager has absolute discretion to make decisions as best fits the billeting policy.

Billeting - Sydney host families

Billeting is a special experience which is unique to Carnival and we want everyone to experience this opportunity

- Every home to host a billet (extenuating circumstances apply)
- For host homes - a parent must be home throughout carnival
- Every adult in the host household will be required to submit a valid working with children check
- The billeting manager has absolute discretion to make decisions as best fits the billeting policy
- All participants are expected to attend all Carnival events
