However, any misuse of social media in a manner that does not directly refer to Maccabi may still be regulated by other policies, rules or regulations.

USING SOCIAL MEDIA IN AN OFFICIAL CAPACITY

You must be authorised by Maccabi before engaging in social media as a representative of Maccabi.

As a part of Maccabi's, community you are an extension of the Maccabi brand.

As such, the boundaries between when you are representing yourself and when you are representing Maccabi can often be blurred. This becomes even more of an issue as you increase your profile or position within Maccabi. Therefore it is important that you represent both yourself and Maccabi appropriately online at all times.

GUIDELINES

You must adhere to the following guidelines when using social media related to Maccabi or its business, products, competitions, teams, participants, services, events, sponsors, members, clubs, affiliated bodies, or reputation.

- Use common sense

Whenever you are unsure as to whether or not the content you wish to share is appropriate, seek advice from others before doing so or refrain from sharing the content to be on the safe side.

When using social media, the lines between public and private, personal and professional, may be blurred. Remember, you are an ambassador for Maccabi .

- Protect your privacy

Be smart about protecting yourself and your privacy.

When posting content online there is potential for that content to become publicly available through a variety of means, even if it was intended to be shared privately. Therefore, you should refrain from posting any content online that you would not be happy for anyone to see, even if you feel confident that a particular individual would never see it.

Where possible, privacy settings on social media platforms should be set to limit access. You should also be cautious about disclosing your personal details.

- Honesty

Your honesty or dishonesty may be quickly noticed in the social media environment. Do not say anything that is dishonest, untrue or misleading. If you are unsure, check the source and the facts before uploading or posting anything. Maccabi recommends erring on the side of caution – if in doubt, do not post or upload.

Do not post anonymously, using pseudonyms or false screen names. Be transparent and honest. Use your real name, be clear about who you are and identify any affiliations you have.

If you have a vested interest in something you are discussing, point it out. If you make an endorsement or recommendation about something you are affiliated with, or have a close relationship with, you must disclose that affiliation.

The web is not anonymous. You should assume that all information posted online can be traced back to you. You are accountable for your actions both on and offline, including the information you post via your personal social media accounts.

- Use of disclaimers

Wherever practical, include a prominent disclaimer stating who you work for or are affiliated with (e.g. member of Maccabi) and that anything you publish is your personal opinion and that you are not speaking officially. This is good practice and is encouraged, but don't count on it to avoid trouble — it may not have legal effect.

- Reasonable use

If you are an employee of Maccabi, you must ensure that your personal use of social media does not interfere with your work commitments or productivity.

- Respect confidentiality and sensitivity

When using social media, you must maintain the privacy of Maccabi's confidential information. This includes information that is not publically accessible, widely known, or not expected to be shared outside of Maccabi.

Remember, if you are online, you are on the record—much of the content posted online is public and searchable.

Within the scope of your authorisation by Maccabi, it is perfectly acceptable to talk about Maccabi and have a dialogue with the community, but it is not okay to publish confidential information of Maccabi. Confidential information includes things such as details about litigation, unreleased information and unpublished details about Maccabi: e.g. team, club lists, coaching practices, financial information and trade secrets.

When using social media you should be considerate to others and should not post information when you have been asked not to, or where consent has not been sought and given. You must also remove information about another person if that person asks you to do so.

Permission should always be sought if the use or publication of information is not incidental, but directly related to an individual. This is particularly relevant to publishing any information regarding minors. In such circumstances, parental or guardian consent is mandatory.

- Gain permission when publishing a person's identifiable image

You must obtain express permission from an individual, preferably in writing, to use a direct, clearly identifiable image of that person.

You should also refrain from posting any information or photos of a sensitive nature. This could include accidents, incidents or controversial behaviour.

In every instance, you need to have consent of the owner of copyright in the image.

- Comply with applicable laws

Do not post or link to content that contains illegal or indecent content, including defamatory, vilifying or misleading and deceptive content.

- Abide by copyright laws

It is critical that you comply with the laws governing copyright in relation to material owned by others and Maccabi's own copyright and brands.

You should never quote or use more than short excerpts of someone else's work, and you should always attribute such work to the original author/source. It is good practice to link to others' work rather than reproduce it.

- Discrimination, sexual harassment and bullying

The public in general, and Maccabi's employees and members, reflect a diverse set of customs, values and points of view.

You must not post any material that is offensive, harassing, discriminatory, embarrassing, intimidating, sexually explicit, bullying, hateful, racist, sexist or otherwise inappropriate.

When using social media you are also bound by Maccabi's Member Protection Policy.

- Avoid controversial issues

Within the scope of your authorisation by Maccabi, if you see misrepresentations made about Maccabi in the media, you may point that out to the relevant authority at Maccabi. Always do so with respect and with the facts. If you speak about others, make sure what you say is based on fact and does not discredit or belittle that party.

- Deal with mistakes

If Maccabi makes an error while posting on social media, be up front about the mistake and address it quickly. If you choose to modify an earlier post, make it clear that you have done so. If someone accuses Maccabi of posting something improper (such as their copyrighted material or a defamatory comment about them), address it promptly and appropriately and if necessary, seek legal advice.

- Conscientious behaviour and awareness of the consequences

Keep in mind that what you write is your responsibility, and failure to abide by these guidelines could put your membership, volunteerism or employment at risk.

You should always follow the terms and conditions for any third-party sites in which you participate.

- Branding and intellectual property of Maccabi

You must not use any of Maccabi's intellectual property or imagery on your personal social media without prior approval from Maccabi.

Maccabi's intellectual property includes but is not limited to:

- trademarks
- logos
- slogans
- imagery which has been posted on any Maccabi official social media sites or website.

You must not create either an official or unofficial Maccabi presence using the organisation's trademarks or name without prior approval from Maccabi.

You must not imply that you are authorised to speak on behalf of Maccabi unless you have been given official authorisation to do so.

POLICY BREACHES

Breaches of this policy include but are not limited to:

- Using Maccabi's name, motto, crest and/or logo in a way that would result in a negative impact for the organisation, clubs and/or its members.
- Posting or sharing any content that is abusive, harassing, threatening, demeaning, defamatory or libellous.
- Posting or sharing any content that includes insulting, obscene, offensive, provocative or hateful language.
- Posting or sharing any content, which if said in person during the playing of the game would result in a breach of the rules of the game.
- Posting or sharing any content in breach of Maccabi's anti-discrimination, racial discrimination, sexual harassment or other similar policy.
- Posting or sharing any content that is a breach of any state or Commonwealth law.
- Posting or sharing any material to our social media channels that infringes the intellectual property rights of others.
- Posting or sharing material that brings, or risks bringing Maccabi, its affiliates, its sport, its officials, members or sponsors into disrepute. In this context, bringing a person or organisation into disrepute is to lower the reputation of that person or organisation in the eyes of the ordinary members of the public.

REPORTING A BREACH

If you notice inappropriate or unlawful content online relating to Maccabi or any of its members, or content that may otherwise have been published in breach of this policy, you should report the circumstances immediately.

INVESTIGATION

Alleged breaches of this social media policy may be investigated according to Maccabi policy.

Where it is considered necessary, Maccabi may report a breach of this social media policy to police.

DISCIPLINARY PROCESS, CONSEQUENCES AND APPEALS

Depending on the circumstances breaches of this policy may be dealt with in accordance with the disciplinary procedure contained in the Maccabi Member Protection Policy.

Employees of Maccabi who breach this policy may face disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment in accordance with Maccabi Member Protection Policy or any other relevant policy.
